October 12 - October 14, 2015

Chattanooga, Tennessee

IIMA 2015

What is IIMA 2015?

IIMA 2015 is a conference to be held in Chattanooga, TN on October 12 - 14, 2015, sponsored by The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. The conference combines academic excellence and friendly interaction to create a collegial atmosphere that is usually missing from other conferences.

Keynote Speakers:

Boyd Campbell, CTO/CIO, Cloud Nine Solutions, <http://www.c9sol.com>

Travis Allen (tentative), iSchool Initiative, <http://www.ischoolinitiative.com>

Why Attend IIMA?

For academic researchers, this is a great chance for discovering new research directions, interacting with other researchers and professionals.

For students, this is a great time for learning latest technology and research trends and finding job opportunities.

For industrial professionals, this is a wonderful opportunity for inspiring new ideas, recruiting students, and networking with researchers.

Also, Chattanooga is a scenic city, full of natural wonders waiting to be explored by foot, car, bike, or train.

Registration Info.

Registration is required to attend the conference. Early bird registration is $250 and open until September 30, 2015. Registration will be $300 after September 30, 2015.
